

Aslacton Primary School - Newsletter Friday 9th November 2018

In Owl class we have been learning about the festival of Diwali and have made diva lamps and rangoli patterns. We have also written poetry about wolves. Kestrel class have learnt about the different types of puppets in topic lessons, and have written some fantastic persuasive adverts in English. This week Eagle class have been learning about improper fractions and short division. We have also been writing biographies about the famous author J.K Rowling.

Children in Need

We will be raising money for Children in Need on 16th November by holding a non-uniform day where we are encouraging the children to dress in spots, stripes or brightly coloured clothing for a donation to the charity.

Clubs

There is no choir next Thursday (15th). It will resume the following week. We will be running extra choir sessions at lunchtimes to enable us to be ready for Christmas. Anyone is welcome to join in these sessions.

Aslacton Express Photograph Competition

The school newspaper is running an Autumn Photograph competition. Photographs can be taken of anything that is autumnal and need to be emailed to the school office (office@aslacton.norfolk.sch.uk) by the end of next week. Please include your child's name in the email text.

Norse Inventors Day Lunch.

Norse are running a competition to design the menu for the school lunch on January 17th. Information and how to enter is being sent home with each child today.

Breakfast Club invoices

Invoices for breakfast club have been sent home this week. Please pay them by 16th November. If you pay by BACs, please inform the office once you have paid so we can ensure the payment has been accounted for. Thank you.

Sugar for Shelters

We are once again collecting sugar for the Sugar for Shelters campaign which supports the homeless and families in crisis across East Anglia. If you are able to donate a bag of sugar for this campaign, please bring it to the school office by 7th December.

Flu vaccinations

Letters were sent out to children in years R-5 yesterday for the flu vaccinations which will take place in a few weeks time. Please return these as soon as possible to the school office. If you do not wish your child to be vaccinated, or if they have it at a GP surgery, the form still needs to be completed and returned.

Young Fundraiser Award

Following our non-uniform day held in July, we are delighted to announce that Aslacton Primary has been presented with a Young Fundraiser Award in recognition of money raised for the Jenny Lind Children's Hospital. Thank you to everyone for your generous contributions.

Archant— 'Books for Schools'

We have collected quite a few tokens and still need more! We need at least 1000 tokens to get us £100 worth of books. Please support this appeal and ask anyone you know who reads the EADT, EDP and Evening News publications to save the tokens for us, it would be great to be able to add new books to our school library.

Christmas Performances

We are excited to welcome you to watch our Christmas performances in December. We ask that you do not bring younger siblings to the 6pm performance. We allow photography at performances but ask that you only photograph your child and do not upload photos or video to social media. Thank you for your support with this.

Cake Friday

Congratulations to Leah this weeks winner of Cake Friday.

Attendance:

We are aiming for 100% attendance in school. Overall school attendance for w/e November 9th was 96.5%

The class attendance for this week was;

Owl: 100%

Kestrel: 93.5%

Eagle: 97%

Well done to Owl class who have achieved 100%

If your child is unwell and unable to be in school, please ensure that you phone and leave a message to inform us before 9.30am. Absences not accounted for after this time will be recorded as unauthorised.

Headteacher's Award

Seren in Owl class for trying really hard with her writing this week.

Molly in Kestrel class for her fantastic persuasive advert.

Leyla in Eagle class for her fabulous Mayan God art work this week.
