

Aslacton Primary School - Newsletter Friday 26th April 2019

This term our Core Value is: Community

Owls have been planning journeys, finding out about countries of the UK and weighing 'gold'. Kestrel class have written some fantastic descriptive poems in English and have learned about position and direction in maths. Eagles have been solving negative number word problems. We have enjoyed learning about the entwined characters in our new core story - A Midsummer Night's Dream. In R.E, we have studied the origins of Hinduism.

Staffing

We wish Mrs Cott well as she begins her maternity leave today. We also wish Miss Knights good luck as she runs in the London Marathon on Sunday. If you would still like to sponsor her, please visit: www.justgiving.com/crowdfunding/aslacton-primarieschool Or visit the school office.

or

Both are served with Mixed Salad and Coleslaw
